

JOB POSTING – ADJUNCT/PART-TIME FACULTY

The Department of Legal Studies, School of Applied Sciences, The University of Mississippi, offers a Bachelor of Criminal Justice, a Bachelor of Paralegal Studies, and a Master of Criminal Justice, and occasionally needs adjunct/part-time instructors to teach courses. Please note that there may or may not be a teaching need for a particular course at this time, but rather there may be an opportunity for a part-time instructor to teach a particular course should the need arise.

A list of the criminal justice courses, and their descriptions, can be accessed online at <http://catalog.olemiss.edu/courses/C>, and all begin with the alpha code of CJ. For a course description, click on the class title. If interested in being considered for a part-time teaching opportunity of criminal justice courses with the Department of Legal Studies, please submit a cover letter, current curriculum vita / resume, and the names and contact information of three academic references. The cover letter should indicate the course(s) you are interested in teaching and your expertise for teaching the course(s). For courses numbered 100 -400, the minimum educational level requirement is a Master's degree in Criminal Justice (or closely related field). For 500 and 600 level courses, a Ph.D. in criminal justice (or a closely related field) is required.

A list of the paralegal courses courses, and their descriptions, can be accessed online at <http://catalog.olemiss.edu/courses/L>, and all begin with the alpha code of LA. For a course description, click on the class title. If interested in being considered for a part-time teaching opportunity of paralegal studies courses with the Department of Legal Studies, please submit a cover letter, current curriculum vita / resume, a statement describing your experience working as or with a paralegal, and the names and contact information of three academic references. The cover letter should indicate the course(s) you are interested in teaching and your expertise for teaching the course(s). The minimum educational level requirement is a Master's degree in any field with a Bachelor's degree in Paralegal Studies or a post-baccalaureate certificate in Paralegal Studies.
